Description:

National Male Medical Clinics has helped and treated thousands of men with erectile dysfunction, PE and testosterone. At National Male Medical Clinics this is all they do and they will design a treatment plan for their patient that is specified for their individual needs. Their programs remain on the cutting edge of technology. They have an all male staff who fully understands the needs and concerns of their patients. They confidently offer services based upon their years of experience and success treating men of every age. All of their consultations are private and confidential. This is a perfect business opportunity for an MD, DO or PA. This business could also be operated as a seasonal business remaining open just for a few days in summer or even closing and just opening for refills. Please call broker for more details on this opportunity.
